Skaters In Romp Vs. Hanover, But Drop Tough One To Hull

Just a few nights earlier, the same two teams played to a 6-all tie, but last week, Cohasset's hockey team came out shooting and bombed Hanover 12-2.

Skipper coach Ed McDermott blamed lackadaisical defense for the first meeting tie with the Indians and last week went with sophomore goalie Billy Hollis who gave up only two goals in his varsity debut.

Larry Evans scored four goals including the first three for Cohasset and had two assists in the bargain as Tim Smith and Phil Drago on the same Gold Line helped to give the trio 10 points on the night.

Joe Durkin, Doug Dillon and Rich Young compiled nine points with three goals by Durkin.

In the second period, Cohasset scored six unanswered goals and five without response in the third as they scored 28 goals in their last three games in an offensive binge to run their record to 5-1-1, good for a first place tie with 4-3-3 Holbrook in the South Shore League.

Bad Week for Girls Five

Cohasset's girls hoopsters dropped a 51-44 decision to Hull last week.

Diane Maloney with 13 and Katie Salerno with 11 paced the Skipper attack.

Cohasset's girls hoopsters bowed last week to Duxbury, 51-32, dropping their record to 3-5.

Cohasset's girls basketball team blew an early lead in the final seconds and lost last week to Holbrook, 38-35.

Cohasset led 16-15 at the half.

High scorer for the Skippers was Kate Salerno with 13 points.
